

2cLAST EDITION*2c*WARRANT OUT FOR DELBRIDGE GIRL

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 104 Chicago, Tuesday, January 30, 1917

398

FIFTEEN THOUSAND WOMEN MAY STRIKE

ANON. LETTERS HIT MAYOR AND CHIEF

Anonymous letters attacking Mayor Thompson, Chief Schuetzler, several members of the police dept. and politicians were received by Federal Judge Landis, Ald. Merriam and Ald. Nance today. The letters were signed "A Committee of Honest Policemen." Reporters attempted to read the contents of the letter to the mayor, but he refused to listen.

Further charges were that two politicians split $20,000 monthly graft and that Mont Tennes was allowed to operate 63 handbooks and that $100,000 was collected for the privilege of operating the "baseball mutual" game last summer.

Ladies' Garment Workers Ask Police Not to Use Their Clubs

Fifteen thousand women who expect to go on strike in Chicago next week today sent word to the police:

"We are going on strike, perhaps. We want you on our side. In past you have been against strikers, especially women strikers, harrassing them, clubbing them, running them off the streets until they were starved into submission from having to fight both their employer oppressors and you guardians of the law.

"Now, we may be forced to strike